The International Fraternity of Delta Sigma Pi

Professional Commerce and Business Administration Fraternity

Delta Sigma Pi was founded at New York University, School of Commerce, Accounts and Finance, on November 7, 1907, by Alexander F. Makay, Alfred Moysello, Harold V. Jacobs and H. Albert Tienken. Delta Sigma Pi is a professional fraternity organized to foster the study of business in universities; to encourage scholarship, social activity and the association of students for their mutual advancement by research and practice; to promote closer affiliation between the commercial world and students of commerce; and to further a high standard of commercial ethics and culture, and the civic and commercial welfare of the community.

IN THE PROFESSIONAL SPOTLIGHT

OUR SPOTLIGHT turns this issue to Delta Theta Chapter at Oklahoma City University and the Oklahoma Institute of Consumer Finance conducted there with the assistance of the chapter. Most of the chapter members served as guides and two of the members, Robert Jones and Frank Michael, pictured here, presented a portion of the program.

THE 22ND GRAND CHAPTER CONGRESS was a great meeting, and I came away from it with the very greatest elation about our future. I felt that all the chapter delegates were striving to learn more and better ways of carrying on their programs, and I felt that the alumni club delegates made great progress toward solving their own problems.

But as I worked with the Executive Committee and the Grand Council in the pre-Congress days, and with your delegates during the Congress, I thought more and more about our stature as an international organization, the maturity which we have reached in many spheres, and the significance of those things. Look at these aspects of our present standing:

We have a permanent Central Office building, adequate both for now and for future growth. We have a loyal Central Office organization, both Deltasigs and ladies, who know their jobs and are dedicated to our program. We are a large fraternity, with 98 active chapters and some 44,000 members. Our finances are in good shape, backed by a growing endowment fund. Our leaders are substantial business men, able and enthusiastic in working for Delta Sigma Pi. Our fraternity and our leaders are respected in the business, academic and fraternity worlds.

Although nothing about our work will ever become pure routine, yet with our greater experience in handling everyday matters, we can now broaden even more our central efforts to help every Deltasig fulfill his ambitions both for himself and for his chapter. We can move forward confidently in improving our publications, our chapter operating material. We can pay more attention to groups having special problems arise. We can move more swiftly in helping alumni clubs make their membership coverage greater and their programs even more meaningful. We can serve better. Expansion, too, we can take in stride, for we have learned better how to sell Delta Sigma Pi on new campuses and how to teach Delta Sigma Pi to new chapters of commerce students.

You had better be sure your chapter—and your alumni club—is in step with this progress. Delta Sigma Pi will move fast this year, and every year. You will have to hustle to get to the top—or to stay there.

We are going places this year, and the ride will be exhilarating. Let's go!

THE START of this college year finds us in a better position than ever to serve the chapters and alumni clubs of Delta Sigma Pi. Several of our publications were revised and modernized during the past summer and three new publications added to our list. Further we have a more workable and practical set of laws thanks to the delegates to the 22nd Grand Chapter Congress who approved 59 amendments. We fully expect to raise Delta Sigma Pi to greater heights this year with our brand new tools.

Adding to our optimism are the two new Field Secretaries that joined The Central Office Staff this past summer and who are now ready to embark upon the most extensive visitation program ever conducted by Delta Sigma Pi. Don J. Hill is from the University of Minnesota and Charles Farrar is from Louisiana Polytechnic Institute, and both have been president of their chapter. Through their efforts and mine we hope to visit every chapter during the coming year which should do much toward cementing the fraternity into one great working unit. We also expect to provide more service from The Central Office and will be waiting your requests for aid.—JIM THOMSON

The 22nd Grand Chapter Congress Recorded as One of the Finest

THE 22ND GRAND CHAPTER CONGRESS of Delta Sigma Pi will be remembered as one of the best in the history of the fraternity. The fine facilities of the Sheraton-Gibson Hotel in Cincinnati, the delightful surroundings of were given a packet containing all of the data necessary to make their stay in Cincinnati a most pleasant one. Completing the welcome was the Reception and Buffet Dinner that evening. The Grand Council was on hand to greet the delegates who entered the Roof Garden of the Sheraton-Gibson Hotel which had been transformed into an early 1900 German Garden. Complete with checkered table cloths, a German Band in 1900 garb, and the local committee in Bavarian costumes made the occasion a very festive one. Without a doubt, this informal atmosphere helped to make friendships which will last for many years to come.

This same Roof Garden of the Sheraton-Gibson Hotel was again transformed on Monday morning to accommodate the business sessions of the 22nd Grand Chapter Congress, which were brought to order by the gavel of Grand President Homer T. Brewer. A fine greeting from the Mayor of Cincinnati, Donald D. Clancy was a fitting prelude to the official reports of the national officers and committees.

At noon the delegates assembled in the Ballroom of the hotel to honor the official delegates who were seated at special tables in Region order. In order to allow for more time for discussion at the Regional Meetings that afternoon no speaker was scheduled for the luncheon. This was good planning too as most of the Regional Meetings went right up to the deadline for the initiation of the Honorary Member-at-Large that afternoon by members of the Grand Council.

The initiation of Ernest S. Fields, president of the Cincinnati Gas and Electric Company, was held before an exceptionally large audience on Monday afternoon. No doubt it was this large assembly and Grand President Brewer's pledge of ritualistic perfection that brought on stage fright in a couple of the ritual team members, and some kidding from the delegates later.

A full house was also recorded for the Grand Chapter Banquet that evening when Brother Ernest S. Fields presented an address entitled "The Other Two-thirds." Ably handling the job of toastmaster was Roy von Briesen, a member of the Grand Chapter Congress Committee.

Among the guests present were: Walter C. Langsam, president of the University of Cincinnati; Robert Bishop, Dean of Men of the University of Cincinnati;

Early on Sunday, August 30, the delegates began arriving in Cincinnati and were greeted at the hotel by a beautiful display in the lobby reminding them of the goals of Delta Sigma Pi. This beautiful action display is to be a permanent part of all future Grand Chapter Congresses. The second sign of welcome came when the delegates registered and Brother McGrath introduced the speaker, Brother Ernest Fields. Also in attendance at this Banquet were Grand Secretary-Treasurer Emeritus H. G. Wright, Past Grand Presidents Howard B. Johnson and Robert G. Busse, and the President of the Delta Sigma Pi Educational Foundation Herbert Wehe.

Tuesday morning found the delegates assembled for a discussion period devoted to chapter administration. Grand President Brewer, and Field Secretaries Don Hill and Charles Farrar each presented a phrase of chapter operation and lead discussions about them. These panels were short lived, however, as the buses for a trip to Oxford left promptly at 11:30 that morning. On the way, the delegates were given a quick view of the University of Cincinnati and some of the points of interest of that city. In Oxford a luncheon was awaiting them at the new Miami University Student Center. Greetings and welcomes were extended by Brother Glen Douglass, Mayor of Oxford; Dr. Clarence Kreger, Provost of Miami University, and Brother Raymond Glos, Dean of the School of Business Administration.

Between showers the delegates also toured Oxford, Western College and the Miami University Campuses. The highlight of the Oxford Tour, as expected, was the visit to The Central Office of Delta Sigma Pi. Deltasigs on the faculty of Miami University and members of the staff of The Central Office served as guides.

Following the tour of Oxford, the ladies returned to Cincinnati and the hotel while the men went directly to Elsaesser's Farm near Cincinnati, for the traditional Stag Party. The appetizing buffet and pleasant surroundings of the Farm were only surpassed by the spirit created by the meeting of the Ancient, Effervescent, Independent Order of the Yellow Dogs, which admitted 132 men to membership that evening. The college songs and old favorites were also given quite a workout that night to the accompaniment of an accordionist.

A tired, but happy group was on hand on Wednesday morning for a panel on "Membership" conducted by Executive Director Jim Thomson. The discussion sessions were concluded with a question and answer period with Grand President Brewer, Executive Director Jim Thomson and Director of Business Education Walter Brower endeavoring to answer the questions put forth by the delegates.

At the afternoon business session much time was devoted to a review of the various proposed amendments to the Delta Sigma Pi Constitution and By-laws.

ON HAND TO WELCOME the delegates at the Reception and Buffet were the Grand Council and the first ladies. Pictured are, right to left: Grand President Homer T. The passing of these new laws was followed by an election of officers. Homer T. Brewer of Atlanta was unanimously reelected Grand President, while Robert A. Mocella of Chicago was elected as Director-at-Large, M. John Marko of Newark as Director of the Eastern Region, Monroe Landreth of Charlotte as Director of the Southeastern Region, Robert Elder of Detroit as Director of the Central Region, Franklin Tober of Buffalo as Director of the East Central Region, Roy N. That evening the Grand President's Banquet was held in the Roof Garden with Past Grand President J. Harry Feltham serving as toastmaster. Awards for service to the fraternity were made to Robert O. Hughes, former Director of the Eastern Region, and to Frank A. Geraci, former Director of the Central Region. The climax of the Banquet was reached with the drawing for the Diamond Badge. James Harpring of the Grand Chapter Congress Committee conducted this drawing, calling upon two young ladies to assist him. Roy N. Tipton, a member of the Grand Council, was the lucky one to receive the Badge.

Concluding the 22nd Grand Chapter Congress was the Ball held in the same Roof Garden later that evening. At an orchestra break late that night Delta Omicron Chapter at San Francisco State College was presented with the attendance award given to the delegation traveling the greatest total aggregate of miles to attend the convention.

Although this Grand Chapter Congress did not break any attendance records it will long be remembered for the number of stellar events and the smoothness with which everything was conducted. Our hats are off to the members of the 22nd Grand Chapter Congress Committee who served so ably as hosts. In particular we want to applaud General Chairman Charles Schnabel; and the following heads of sub-committees: Rocco Domino, Andrew Fogarty, Gail Nelcamp, James Morris, Edward Frank, Roy von Briesen, James Harpring, Eugene Wilson, George Koesterman, and Robert Wagner. The Ladies Committee under the leadership of Rae Schnabel is also deserving of much praise.

THE LOCAL COMMITTEE donned Bavarian garb to add to the atmosphere of the "Over the Rhine" Party which served as a reception on the first night of the 22nd Grand Chapter Congress.

The Ladies Program

Without a doubt, the most interesting and delightful part of the 22nd Grand Chapter Congress program was the part planned for the ladies in attendance. The Reception and Buffet on Sunday evening opened this Ladies Program which was quickly followed on Monday morning by a coffee hour at which the ladies had further opportunity to become acquainted. A special Pink Poodle Luncheon at the famed Taft Museum in Cincinnati was only topped by the "Queen's Cruise" that evening on the Ohio River. In true "Maverick" style the ladies gambled on this river boat after partaking of a buffet dinner. On Tuesday, the ladies were much in evidence at the Oxford Luncheon and on the tour to The Central Office of Delta Sigma Pi. That evening they journeyed to the swank Maketewah Country Club of Cincinnati to hold their Doe Party and Pink Poodle Initiation. The only scheduled event for the early hours of Wednesday was a morning coffee hour, which is noted for the speaker that entertained the ladies. That evening bright party dresses were in order for the Grand President's Dinner and the Grand Chapter Congress Ball. The four days were full ones for the ladies and ones which shall always be cherished by those who attended and participated.

LET ME SIGN IT NEXT was the cry of the delegates when they entered the hall of The Central Office Building and spied the Guest Register.

THE ALUMNI ROOM of The Central Office Building was a favorite spot on the Oxford Tour, because of its refreshments.

THE QUEEN'S CRUISE on the Ohio River with all the trimmings of yesteryear was one of the highlights of the ladies' program.

MEETINGS OF THE REGIONAL DELEGATES were an important part of the 22nd Grand Chapter Congress. Here we see the Central Region in Session with Director Frank Geraci and District Director Robert Mocella.

Brother Fields was born in Bracken, Kentucky, and received his early education in Kentucky schools. Later he entered the University of Cincinnati as a co-op student in electrical engineering and at the same time became associated with the Cincinnati Gas and Electric Co. His promotions in this company were continuous until today he serves as its president.

Brother Fields is also vice president of the Ohio Valley Electric Corporation which supplies electric energy to the Atomic Energy Commissions center near Portsmouth, Ohio. Among his other affiliations are included active membership in the State of Ohio Atomic Energy Advisory Board, The American Gas Association, the Engineering Society of Cincinnati, the Newcomen Society of England, and the Conference of Internationale des Grands Electiques of France.

The principal address at the 22nd Grand Chapter Congress Banquet was presented by Brother Fields. This was entitled "The Other Two Thirds," and gave the delegates quite a bit to think about.

THE UNANIMOUS CHOICE of the Grand Council of Delta Sigma Pi for "Deltasig of the Year 1959" was E. Grosvenor Plowman, Vice President and General Traffic Manager of the United States Steel Corporation. Brother Plowman is an alumnus of our Alpha Nu Chapter at Denver University and currently a member of the Pittsburgh Alumni Club of Delta Sigma Pi.

For many years Brother Plowman has been engaged in the transportation field, having served as advisor on Transportation to the War Production Board, director of the Military Traffic Service of the Department of Defense, vice-chairman of the Pittsburgh Port Authority, vice chairman of the panel of advisors to the Army Transportation Corps, and in many other organizations and capacities.

In the field of education he has been a member of the faculties of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Boston University, Babson Institute, and Denver University. He is also co-author with Brother and Dean Emeritus Elmore Petersen of Colorado of the text "Business Organization and Management" now in its third edition.

Despite his very busy career, Brother Plowman has found time to serve his community as vice chairman of the United Fund Drive, and vice president of the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce.

The presentation of the "Deltasig of the Year" Award was made to Brother Plowman on Saturday, October 24, at a dinner held in the Supper Room of the University of Pittsburgh Student Union. The dinner was under the sponsorship of the Pittsburgh Alumni Club of Delta Sigma Pi and Lambda Chapter at the University of Pittsburgh. Over 80 were in attendance including a delegation from Alpha Kappa Chapter at the University of Buffalo under the leadership of Franklin A. Tober, East Central Region Director. Also present were Executive Director Jim Thomson from Oxford, Ohio, and his wife, Lillian. Those in attendance will always remember the fine remarks made by Brother Plowman in accepting this award.

This is the eighth annual "Deltasig of the Year" Award. The first such award was made in 1952 and was inaugurated by the late Allen L. Fowler, who served as Grand President of Delta Sigma Pi. The present program is being perpetuated in his name by a trust fund created by Brother Fowler's family.

Previous awards have been made to Oliver S. Powell of Minnesota, president of the Ninth Federal Reserve Bank in Minneapolis; Charles F. Nielson of Southern California, director of the Parts and Service Division of Lockheed Air-

First of Six New Chapters

Installed at San Francisco State

ON SATURDAY, April 4, 1959, Delta Omicron Chapter of Delta Sigma Pi was installed in the Division of Business at San Francisco State College in San Francisco, California. This charter was granted to Delta Sigma Fraternity, which had been organized on the San Francisco State College campus for the specific purpose of petitioning Delta Sigma Pi for a chapter.

The installation ceremonies were informally started with a luncheon of the chapter officers and the installation team at The Red Chimney, a famous San Francisco restaurant near the campus. Following the luncheon, the visitors registered in the lobby of the Division of Business building on the campus and were personally escorted around the new and attractive campus. The balance of the ceremonies, which began with an informal inquisition, was held at The Red Chimney. The installation team was under the guidance of Regional Director Burell C. Johnson and was comprised of Executive Director Jim Thomson, District Director R. Nelson Mitchell, and delegations from Rho Chapter at the University of California, Gamma Xi Chapter at the University of Santa Clara, and Gamma Omicron at the University of San Francisco.

A social hour preceded the Installation Banquet, which was held that evening in a private dining room of The Red Chimney. Executive Director Jim Thomson served as toastmaster which began with a welcome from Alan W. Johnson, Associate Dean of Students of San Francisco State College. A history of the Division of Business was presented by Brother Russell Sicklebower, assistant chairman of the Division. Robert E. Bowman, Faculty Advisor of Delta Omicron Chapter, related the founding of Delta Sigma Fraternity, and Regional Burell C. Johnson presented the charter as installing officer. This, as usual, was the highlight of the program, and was appropriately recognized as such by John A. Cron, president of Delta Omicron, when he accepted the charter. An introduction of the various delegations, and the reading of the many letters and telegrams of welcome by District Director R. Nelson Mitchell concluded the program.

History of San Francisco State College

The history of San Francisco State College encompasses more than half a century of long struggle and hard success.

HOME OF THE DELTA OMICRON CHAPTER of Delta Sigma Pi is the Business and Social Science Building on the San Francisco State College Campus which is seen here.

The college was established in 1899. The name of the college in the beginning was San Francisco State Normal School and it was mainly a school for the training of elementary teachers. The original building was destroyed by fire in 1906 and a new campus was erected. Later in 1921, the San Francisco State Normal School became the San Francisco State Teachers College. By 1930 all teacher training was for four years. In 1935, the name of the institution was changed to San Francisco State College and a program beyond the field of teaching was developed and the school grew into a liberal arts college. By 1949, the graduate program was extended with the authorization to grant the Master's Degree.

Provisions for a new campus came into being with the purchase of 92 acres of land. The new buildings on this land are modern, highly functional structures built of reinforced concrete and painted in shades of gray and terra cotta.

The college is organized into nine divisions: Air Science, Business and School of World Business, Creative Arts, Education, Health, Physical Education and Recreation, Humanities, Language Arts, National Science, and Social Science.

STUDENTS OF SAN FRANCISCO STATE COLLEGE gather in front of the campus cafeteria for a lawn concert. To the right is the College Gym and in the background is the modern Stonestown Apartments.

San Francisco State offers six degrees, Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Education, Bachelor of Science, Bachelor of Vocational Education, Master of Arts, and Master of Science.

The college is accredited by the Western College Association, the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education, the American Association of University Women, and the California State Board of Education.

The growth of San Francisco State over the years has been tremendous. The college has expanded from a graduating class of 36 young women in 1900 to a present enrollment of 11,500. At the present time a total of 66 organizations are on the campus.

These consist of two honor societies, ten religious organizations, 21 professional, 14 service, 12 social and seven mutual interest organizations.

History of the Division of Business and School of World Business

The Division of Business and School of World Business has the distinction of being the youngest member of the divisional organization of the college. Prior to its formal entry into the college as a separate and distinct division, courses in the area had been given as part of the offerings of the Economics Department, which in turn was a part of the Division of Social Sciences. In the fall of 1946 the actual formal beginning of Business as a distinct entity was realized. At this time only four courses were offered in the business program. As a result of the demand for more business courses from returning World War II veterans, the business program was expanded.

Recognizing the importance of San Francisco as an international trading center, the College during 1949-50 laid plans for introducing a world business curriculum. In the fall of 1950 Dr. and Brother Wayne M. Stevens joined the staff as Chairman of the Division of Business and Director of the School of World Business. At that time business left its temporary harbor in the Social Science Division and embarked upon its career as an independent division of the college. Course offerings were increased considerably in order that the needs of the business community and the demands of the students could be met more satisfactorily. Along with a great increase in the student enrollment, the number of faculty members in business increased from one in 1946 to 38 full time members at the present. The college schedule lists 102 business classes and 33 World Business classes. Total enrollment in the Business Division now stands at 3,529 full time students.

The growing faculty in the Business Division has made possible the introduction of new fields of concentration. Every student who has a major in Business is expected to complete basic courses that are considered essential in preparing for any type of career in the business world. In addition, students choose a field of concentration of not less than 12 units as part of their vocational major. A business-training program also has been developed for those who plan teaching careers in the secondary schools.

Continually the faculty and students of the Business Division and the School of World Business have utilized the extensive resources of the San Francisco Bay Area in the development of the business curriculum. A realistic approach to preparation for business careers has included field studies, interviewing, visits to factories and other enterprises, and a close liaison with the business community.

Many business leaders have participated actively in the business program as members of advisory groups, visiting lecturers, and consultants.

History of Delta Sigma Fraternity

In the fall of 1958, a group of Business Club members decided to investigate the possibilities of organizing a professional business fraternity on the campus.

Although the Business Club has been and still is a successful and active club, it was felt by many of the members that its membership was not sufficiently restrictive in regard to area of interest and scholarship. These members decided that a professional fraternity would best fit their needs.

The first meeting on September 25 was called to order by Business Club President Paul Christensen. At this time the students in attendance were told of the various procedures that would be necessary in order to become a chapter of Delta Sigma Pi. Mr. R. N. Mitchell, a representative from the San Francisco Alumni Club of Delta Sigma Pi was the speaker. Those in attendance were asked to think about election of officers and the meeting was adjourned.

The second meeting was held on September 30. Initiation dues were established, and Mr. Robert Bowman was elected faculty advisor. A nominating committee was formed to handle the election of officers. Two committees were formed, one to establish the fraternity bylaws and the other to draft the petition to Delta Sigma Pi.

The next meeting was held on October 30 for the purpose of electing officers. After much discussion, it was decided that this organization would be officially known as the Delta Sigma Fraternity, a temporary local name. It was felt that this name would show a close relationship with the National organization of Delta Sigma Pi.

The first social gathering was to acquaint the members with each other in a friendly and relaxed atmosphere. It was held on Saturday evening, November 8, in a club room of a local family in San Francisco.

At the next business meeting the constitution was read and voted upon. Its approval was unanimous. Activity plans for future meetings were made which included various speakers from the many

Grand President

Re-elected by an unanimous vote at the 22nd Grand Chapter Congress to lead the fraternity for the next biennium, Homer T. History of Ferris Institute Ferris Institute was established on September 1, 1884 by the late Woodbridge Ferris. It was originally called the Ferris Industrial School, but in 1899 it was christened with its present title, Ferris Institute. Its first building was erected in 1894, a difficult period of depression. With an original enrollment of 15, by 1907 its alumni numbered over 25,000.

In 1893 the beginnings of a pharmacy department were made. A few years later, two years of college level work were added, particularly in the normal and pre-professional levels.

Ferris Institute is recorded at Washington as being one of the few schools offering terminal vocation programs early in the century. A number of these were in commerce. Out of these, as the pro-

Delta Rho Chapter Granted to Fraternity at Ferris Institute

SATURDAY, MAY 16, 1959, was a big day for Delta Sigma Pi in the State of Michigan with the installation of Delta Rho Chapter at Ferris Institute in Big Rapids, Michigan. The ceremonies were held in the new and beautiful Student Center on the Ferris Institute Campus. In charge of the installation was Grand President Homer T. Brewer, who was assisted by Regional Director Frank A. Geraci, District Director Robert J. Elder, Past Grand President Robert G. Busse, and a large delegation from Gamma Kappa Chapter at Michigan State University.

A luncheon was held preceding the initiation ceremonies, and the customary installation banquet was held that evening. Regional Director Frank Geraci served as toastmaster at the Banquet which featured words of welcome from Dean Ardwin J. Dolio of Ferris Institute and a history of the Division of Commerce by Dean S. J. Turille. The founding of Sigma Pi, our petitioning group, was ably told by Brother Arthur H. Croft, faculty advisor of Delta Rho Chapter. Grand President Brewer presented the charter to the Delta Rho Chapter President Ralph J. Toering, who accepted it with appropriate remarks. In conclusion, Past Grand President Rob-fessional needs arose, grew the four-year degree programs in commerce and business administration.

In 1931, forty Big Rapids businessmen underwrote the institution as a non-profit corporation and operated it until 1949, at which time it was offered to the State of Michigan. Senate Bill 251, the Smith-VanderWerp Bill, was passed by the Michigan Legislature, and signed by Governor G. Mennen Williams on May 17, 1949, accepting the school as a member of the family of state colleges.

On February 21, 1950, a fire of unknown origin destroyed all of the buildings except the Alumni Building and half dozen war surplus barracks being used as student living quarters. Three days later the school was once more in operation, using these barracks as temporary classrooms and offices. Legislative appropriations were made for reconstruction, and by fall 1952, classes were meeting in the new East Building, with administrative offices, library, and other student activities housed in the new West Building.

Since 1952, the history of Ferris has been one of rapid growth and expansion. The school has mushroomed to meet the tremendous educational needs of the decade and the student demand for the curricula particular to it.

Ferris Institute since its founding in 1884 has had as one of its major emphases the preparation of students for the commerce field. Enrollment in the Commerce Division has grown to the point where it now has over 1000 students enrolled in the various programs of the division. More than 650 students are enrolled in commerce degree programs.

Ferris Institute is the state college of Michigan whose primary, though not exclusive, emphasis is in the area of practical, vocational and technical education. As such its programs are geared to equipping the student with the skills, understandings and abilities necessary to meet the exacting requirements of income-producing positions in the given areas of instruction.

History of the Commerce Division

The Commerce Division was organized in 1884 as one of the three original departments of Ferris Institute. Historically, the instructional program was geared to provide practical business training for bookkeepers, stenographers, and storekeepers. In 1910, the business teacher education curriculum was added to the offerings of the Division. Three curricula were listed, commercial teachers course, shorthand teachers course, and combined commercial and shorthand teachers course. The four-year program in Commerce leading to the Bachelor of Science Degree was begun in 1933.

Through the years the Commerce Division has opened its doors to everyone having a sincerity of purpose, a willingness to work hard and the capacity to achieve. Students entered at any time and continued in training until they had achieved their goals. The purposes, clientele, and entrance requirements of the Commerce Division have not changed materially throughout the years.

The courses of study, however, have been reorganized, expanded and grouped together into sharply defined degrees and terminal vocational needs of the individual in a rapidly changing, complex business society.

The Commerce Division stands alert and sensitive to the changing needs of the individuals, businesses, communities, businessmen and leaders and looks forward to continued growth in its field of service.

The degree curricula in the Commerce Division are designed to prepare the students for positions of responsibility and leadership in business and industry, government service, and to teach commercial subjects in secondary schools. There are five curricula leading to the Degree of Bachelor of Science in Commerce, which are the General Business Administration program, a non-specialized program, and four specialized programs, Accounting, Marketing, Secretarial, and Teacher Education.

History of Sigma Pi Fraternity

The Sigma Pi fraternity was founded on the Ferris campus in the fall of 1957

under the leadership of faculty member, Arthur H. Croft, a member of Alpha Delta Chapter of Delta Sigma Pi. Regular meetings were held once a month. Many other special meetings were called to work on special projects. One of these projects that Sigma Pi was especially proud was a letter that the fraternity sent out to prospective employers in the spring of 1958. This letter contained information about Ferris' Commerce Program, and it asked employers to consider Ferris graduates in their future employment plans.

Although Sigma Pi fraternity is the newest fraternity on the Ferris campus, it already holds an important position in campus activities.

In keeping with the high scholastic and citizenship standards of the fraternity, many of the members of Sigma Pi fraternity have been recognized in the annual directory, Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

On May 16, 1959, the following undergraduates were initiated as charter members of Delta Rho Chapter in the International Fraternity of Delta Sigma Pi: Ralph J. Toering, Orville H. Somers, Ralph E. Williams, Richard F. Harger, James B. Wynsma, Gordon J. Brazas, James G. Wright, Willard R. Davis, John L. Parker, Jr., Edmond L. Buczkowski, Louis P. Herremans, Norman L. Fitzpatrick, David B. Delta Sigma Chapter Installed at Loyola University of Los Angeles

THE SIXTH CHAPTER of Delta Sigma Pi in the State of California came into being with the installation of Delta Sigma at Loyola University of Los Angeles on Saturday, June 6, 1959. The new Student Center on the Loyola University Campus was the scene of the initiation ceremonies and installation banquet held that day. Grand President Brewer served as chief installing officer and was assisted by Regional Director Burrell C. Johnson, District Director Andrew Marincovich, and delegations from the Los Angeles Alumni Club of Delta Sigma Pi and the Phi Chapter at the University of Southern California.

At the installation banquet Andrew Marincovich served as toastmaster, while greetings were extended by Reverend Charles C. Casassa, president of Loyola University. The history of the College of Business Administration at Loyola was related by Dean Wilbur R. Garrett, and Faculty Advisor Norman E. Weir told of the founding of Lambda Upsilon Fraternity, our petitioning group. Regional Director Burrell C. Johnson spoke on Delta Sigma Pi prior to the presentation of the charter by Grand President Brewer. Accepting the charter on behalf of Delta Sigma Chapter was its president, Irene A. Charvet.

History of Loyola University

Loyola University is the successor of St. Vincent's College, the first institution of higher learning in Southern California. St. Vincent's was founded in 1865 but was forced to close in 1911. It was then that the Jesuit fathers took over the administration of the college and began to teach the classes.

The school was moved to a new location in 1917, and to another location in 1928 where it is now situated. On February 8, 1930, Loyola College was incorporated by the State of California as Loyola University. As a full-fledged university, it separated all the various schools into colleges, and in 1950 a Graduate Division was founded as a constituent unit.

the supervision of faculty member, Norman Weir, who had been a member of Delta Sigma Pi at the University of Denver. Approval by Dr. Wilbur Garrett, Dean of the College of Business Administration, was granted, and from there the fraternity began to formulate a constitution. All students in Loyola's College of Business who maintained a C average in their grades were eligible to pledge Lambda Upsilon. It was also planned to have two pledge classes a year. The pledges had to pass a two month pledging period and at the completion of this time were accepted into the fraternity at an evening dinner. The pledges

History of College of Business Administration

In September of 1926, Loyola College of Los Angeles, under the leadership of the Reverend Joseph A. Sullivan, S.J., and the Reverend Louis B. Egan, S.J., Dean of the Faculties, established a College of Commerce and Business Administration. The inauguration of the college at this time was in keeping with the trend of recognizing the need for collegiate education as a preparation for business management.

During the academic year 1935-36 the name of the college was changed to the College of Business Administration. The College of Business Administration is a separate and distinct college of the University having as its chief administration officer a dean.

Banquets were held in the next few months with outstanding business men as speakers.

During the first year of Lambda Upsilon's existence, the university contracted with the fraternity to handle the advertisement campaign for The Lair, the university Annual Year Book. This activity was eagerly undertaken as a source of income and created a competitive spirit in the fraternity.

Two New Faces at

The Central Office

THE TWO LATEST ADDITIONS to the staff of The Central Office of Delta Sigma Pi are Don J. Hill of Minnesota and Charles L. Farrar of Louisiana Tech, both of whom will serve in the capacity of Field Secretary. These two men joined the staff in June and have been acquainting themselves with the routines of The Central Office in preparation for their chapter visitation work this Fall.

Don Hill is a native of Minnesota and a graduate of the University of Minnesota. He was born in Austin, Minnesota, in 1937 and attended Austin High School. In 1955 Don began his undergraduate work at Minnesota, joining Delta Sigma Pi in 1957. As an undergraduate he held the offices of chancellor, vice president, and president of Alpha Epsilon Chapter.

Other activities at the University of Minnesota included serving as treasurer of the Interdormitory Council, Member-at-Large of the Social Service Council, and treasurer of the Campus Chest Drive. In the honors department, Brother Hill attained membership in the Men's Honorary, the Phoenix Society, and the Grey Friars.

His interest in sports leans toward golf and water skiing in which he has a good amount of skill. The real pride and joy in Don's life, however, is divided between his sports car, a Karmin Ghia, and a "Penny."

Brother Farrar became associated with Delta Sigma Pi at Louisiana Polytechnic Institute in Ruston, Louisiana, in 1957, and later served Beta Psi Chapter as "DELTA-SIG" Correspondent, vice president, and then president.

A native of Louisiana, having been born in Monroe, Charles received his elementary education in the Louisiana Public Schools at Marion, Louisiana, and was graduated from the Huttig High School in Huttig, Arkansas. After graduation he was employed for over two years by Olin Industries prior to his tour of service with the United States Army. Entering the service in July 1953, he received his basic training at Fort Riley, Kansas, and was later assigned to the Personnel Section, First Guided Missile Brigade, Fort Bliss, Texas, where he remained until his separation.

After leaving the service, Charles was again employed by the Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation before he entered Louisiana Tech in February 1956. He was not only associated with Delta Sigma Pi while in college, but he also served the Society for the Advancement of Management as president, the Accounting Club as vice president, the Wesley Foundation as treasurer, and the Student Union as treasurer. Having majored in accounting, Charles received his Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from Louisiana Tech in June 1959.

from service in 1945 he moved to Phoenix where he engaged in citrus farming and marketing. In 1954 he entered college and in 1957 he received his BS in BA degree from Arizona State University.

At present, "Buzz" is a placement counselor with the Arizona State Employment Service in Mesa, Arizona. He is an avid outdoorsman, and loves to hunt, fish and play golf.

Burell C. Jonnson, Western Region

Brother Johnson continues his many years of fraternity activity as Director of the Western Region. Burell became a member of Delta Sigma Pi at the University of Alabama in April 1949. That Fall found him on the University of Southern California Campus continuing his education. The fact that Delta Sigma Pi was inactive at the time did not dampen his fraternity interest. Instead, this served as an incentive to him, and it wasn't long before he had the chapter going strong again. Since then Burell has been most active in all Delta Sigma Pi affairs on the west coast. For a number of years he served as a District Director, taking part in several installations, and then as Regional Director.

Burell is employed by the National Cylinder Gas Company, which he serves as manager of the San Francisco area office. He makes his home in Orinda, California, which is across the bay from San Francisco, with his wife, Sherry, and his daughter, Gay. Burell and Sherry have been in regular attendance at Grand Chapter Congresses and Western Region installations for many years.

CHAPTERS

First Place Winners Number 37 Chapters In The Chapter Efficiency Contest

THE END OF THE 1958-59 college year showed 37 chapters tied for first place in the Chapter Efficiency Contest attaining a total of 100,000 points. In addition to these 37 chapters, 12 other chapters scored 85,000 points or more to place on the Honor Roll. This adds up to a total of 49 chapters in the top position out of 92 participating chapters.

To the president of each chapter that tied for first place, a Life Membership in our fraternity has been awarded, while any brother who was a member of a chapter that made the Honor Roll will be able to purchase a Life Membership at a five dollar discount.

Kappa Chapter at Georgia State continues to hold first place in the number of times that they have scored 100,000 points, with this year making it for the 23rd time. Alpha Beta Chapter at Missouri has an outstanding record too, in reaching the 100,000 point goal for the 19th time. Congratulations to the officers and members of these two chapters!

The dates following the name of the chapter and university denote the previous years in which the chapter has been in first place. The Chapter Efficiency Contest was not conducted during the war years of 1943, 1944, 1945 and 1946.

* In cases where two presidents served a single chapter during the year, each received a credit amounting to one-half the cost of a Life Membership.

The Chapter Efficiency Contest was established during the college year 1931-32, and since that time has definitely proven itself to be of real value in increasing chapter interest, while also providing an adequate yardstick to measure a chapter's achievements in the college year. The Chapter Efficiency Contest is divided into five major divisions: Professional Activities, Scholarship, Membership, Finance, and Chapter Initiative and Administration. A maximum of 20,000 points is permitted in each division, thus a final standing of 100,000 points indicates a perfect record for the year's work. Points are awarded for the many various phases of chapter activities, such as: professional meetings, individual and chapter scholarship, pledge training, professional tours, chapter publicity, chapter newsletters, the proper handling of finances, collection of dues, and payment of bills.

Sullivan and Hale Judge "Rose" Contest

ED SULLIVAN AND BARBARA HALE are the judges for our 1960 annual Rose of Deltasig contest! We are pleased to make this announcement concerning these two TV personalities.

Mr. Sullivan, whose Sunday night TV program is watched by 40,000,000 viewers, will score the photographs in New York. Miss Hale, who is Perry Mason's pretty, clever secretary on the Saturday night "Perry Mason Show," will judge the photographs in Hollywood. Then, in a cross-country phone conversation, they will reach an agreement as to the first, second and third place winners in this annual beauty contest.

DELTA SIGMA PI Regions, Chapters, and Alumni Clubs, 1959.

In addition to top ratings in audience and entertainment, the Sullivan and Perry Mason Shows have something else in common: their sponsor, the Colgate-Palmolive Company. The shows represent a new concept in TV programming—a "Week-end Entertainment Package."
